Ald. For said he did not think the city publiding was properly ventilated. The ripos did not go through the roof.

Mr. Clut's letter was discussed. Mr. Taylor said last year when the trees were trimmed the brain was piled in the street with the intention of being covered with did. The dirt was never drawn and this year others had deposited rubbish there. The petition of Downey & Preston re moving weigh scales was granted.
Ald. Diamond moved that Mr. Taylor's petition for an increase of salary be re-ierred to the Public Works Committee.
